LILBOURNE CHAPEL NEWSLETTER

September 2017

The Next Chapter

Nine years ago this month, I began as pastor of Lilbourne Chapel. Now that chapter is coming to an end and a new chapter is beginning as Chi Wah Chow is inducted as pastor on 2nd September.

Brenda and I look back with thankfulness to God for His faithfulness over the years and know that the One who has directed us as a church will continue to do so. Jesus said that He would build His church, and he is not talking about the bricks and mortar that make the church building. People are capable of doing the latter, but only God through the work of His Holy Spirit can bring people into the everlasting church that belongs to Christ. He is building His church all over the world and at Lilbourne Chapel we are just a tiny part of that great body of people who will one day worship God throughout eternity.

Lilbourne as a village, as well as each one of our friends at the chapel will always have a place in our hearts and we are thankful for friendships made and opportunities given to share the Living Word of God with many individuals over the years.

Chi Wah, Lisa and family have become very dear to us as a church and we are thankful that they will be continuing to teach God's Word and reach out to others through the chapel. "Give thanks to the Lord for He is good; his love endures forever." Psalm 118:1

Psalm 48:14 has been our life verse, it first became real to us as we were preparing for overseas missionary service; and has come back to us on each step of our journey; "For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even to the end". This reminds us of all that God did for His people Israel, and the fact that He does not change; He will lead each one of us through to the end. What a privilege we have not only to know God personally but to know His leading each step of the way. He is our Guide. We have a guide who is the God over all. "For this God, is our God... He will be our Guide, even to the end".

In Christ, Colin

GAMES

Holiday Club round-up

A great time was had by all, as 20 to 27 children came each morning for three days. There was a lot of fun (and noise!) as we played games and did various crafts. Most importantly, we learned about the Armour of God, learning Bible verses and being taught the truths of the Gospel. The Chow family worked very hard and all had their parts and we were thankful also for very able helpers from outside of our church. The Lord blessed and did above all we could ask or imagine and we are so thankful to Him!

Christianity Explored ... is a course for anyone who would like to find out more about God, the meaning of life, or why Jesus is relevant today. Please contact us if you would like further details about doing this six-week course as an individual or with others in a small group.
